MEET AT THE ALTAR TO PRAY
MANY CONTENTS ABROGED BY THE REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Evangelists Conduct Seven Services and Extend Hundreds of Persons to Abandon Lives of Unrighteousness; Many Women Eager to Have the Villages of Formosa-reported At the Afternoon Meeting in the Hall.

The evening meeting in "Times of the Lord's Day" was well attended, and testimony of a marked degree of spiritual interest. Many persons were brought to the Lord during the meeting. The services were conducted by: Dr. Fox, Rev. J. C. Banks, Rev. W. H. H. Mathews, and Rev. James R. Bailey, all well-known preachers of the Gospel. The meeting was conducted with great spiritual power, and many persons were moved to tears by the preaching of the Word of God. The services were continued throughout the night, and many persons were converted to Christ.

The next morning, the services were continued with great spiritual power, and many persons were moved to tears by the preaching of the Word of God. The meetings were conducted with great spiritual power, and many persons were converted to Christ.

Rev. J. C. Banks, a well-known preacher of the Gospel, delivered an earnest and able sermon on the subject of "The Importance of Prayer." He spoke of the need of prayer in the life of the Christian, and urged the importance of praying for the conversion of sinners. He also spoke of the need of prayer for the guidance of God's people in their daily lives.

Rev. W. H. H. Mathews, another well-known preacher of the Gospel, delivered an earnest and able sermon on the subject of "The Joy of Knowing God." He spoke of the joy that comes to those who know God and walk in his ways. He also spoke of the need of having a personal relationship with God, and urged the importance of seeking God in prayer.

Rev. James R. Bailey, a well-known preacher of the Gospel, delivered an earnest and able sermon on the subject of "The Power of the Holy Spirit." He spoke of the need of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Christian, and urged the importance of being filled with the Holy Spirit. He also spoke of the need of having a personal relationship with the Holy Spirit, and urged the importance of seeking the Holy Spirit in prayer.

The services were continued throughout the day, and many persons were converted to Christ. The meetings were conducted with great spiritual power, and many persons were moved to tears by the preaching of the Word of God. The services were concluded with a stirring sermon by Rev. Dr. Fox, who urged the importance of seeking God in prayer and having a personal relationship with God and the Holy Spirit.