
SAYS ALDRICH IS A CITIZEN OF OHIO

And Therefore Not Entitled to One of Alabama's Seats in Congress.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 11.—O. W. Underwood, Democratic Congressman-elect from the Ninth Alabama District, has presented his answer to T. H. Aldrich, his defeated Republican opponent and contestant for the seat. After a denial of the charges against Democracy, Mr. Underwood alleges that Aldrich spent $10,000 in corrupting voters; threatened to discharge Blocton miners if they did not vote for him; offered registrars money and gave one registrar money to change the tally of the vote cast; that the Republican owners of the Gate City Mill threatened to close down the mill unless the operators voted for Aldrich; that the Republican officials of Blount and Bibb Counties violated the election laws in order to aid Aldrich, and, finally, that Aldrich was not a citizen of Alabama last November. Aldrich's family has lived for years in Cincinnati, and it is alleged that he voted in Ohio and not in Alabama, thereby fixing his residence in the former State.

TROLLEY MEN WILL KNOW TO-DAY

If a Strike Is Decided Upon It Will Begin To-morrow Morning.

Five of the local assemblies of motormen and conductors in Brooklyn voted to strike on Thursday night. The other twenty local assemblies were trying to decide what they would do until late last night.

The result will be made known at a meeting of District Assembly No. 75, Knights of Labor, in Mugge's Hall, in Bridge Street, to-day. If the majority is in favor of the strike, it will be ordered to begin at 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The De Kalb Avenue employes have agreed to accept $2.12½ a day, but the leaders say that in case a strike is ordered, these men must go out, notwithstanding they are satisfied with the concessions made by President Partridge.

"The matter will be decided one way or the other to-day," said Master Workman Conley last night, "and it looks more like a strike than ever before."
